Sponsored by the UI chapter of the OCF, Orthodox Christian Fellowship of North America. Individuals with disabilities are encouraged to attend. For help with reasonable accommodations, please contact the church at (319) 337-6784.

This PROVOCATIVE RECITAL explores the intimate relationship between Liszt's understanding of the sacramental nature of music and Orthodox iconographic tradition. Barnes' presentation includes the singing of Gregorian chant, an examination of iconography relating to Liszt, and a performance of Liszt's greatest composition, the SONATA IN B MINOR.

"Barnes is a fine pianist and gives us a performance of resounding conviction."
